

The 5 Biggest Cabling Problems

- When you hire a cabling company, who does the actual cabling?

While many companies outsource, Everglades uses an in-house crew to maintain reliable and durable cabling.

- When your CEO's phone jack breaks, how fast can your vendor fix it? And who pays for it?

Everglades Technologies is located in the heart of Manhattan in Union Square, and provides a lifetime warranty for all cabling.

- What is their specialty?

We're not sure about the other guys, but we specialize in Category 3,5,5e,6, Horizontal and Vertical, Wireless, and Fiber Optic infrastructures.

- What does a phone sound like plugged into a bad jack?

Similar to how that question reads. Bad terminations result in choppy phone calls. Make sure your cabler terminates your jacks right the first time.

- What do you do when you expand or rearrange your office?

Properly labeled cables and detailed floor plans are a must. We can provide both.

Your cabling is what connects your company to the rest of the world. We focus on quality, so you can focus on your business.
